IDAHO WILDLAND FIRE CONFERENCE

IT IS ABOUT YOU: Preparing for Wildfire

DoubleTree Riverside ~ Boise, Idaho ~ October 6-7, 2010

The 2010 Idaho Wildland Fire Conference is for anyone who is directly or indirectly involved with, concerned about, interested in, or affected by wildland fire in Idaho.

In other words...it is for EVERY Idahoan.

conference highlights

Pulitzer Prize winning author, Timothy Egan, will discuss his nationally acclaimed book, The Big Burn: Teddy Roosevelt & the Fire That Saved America; regarding the fires of 1910 and their influence on modern-day wildland fire management.

Research Physical Scientist, Jack Cohen, of the Rocky Mountain Station Fire Sciences Laboratory will discuss the latest findings in home ignitions research, and effective alternatives to current practices.

Several others that you don't want to miss!

updates & "other"

Federal Fire Policy: Learn about any new changes from BLM and USFS managers.

"Who's Liable for That?" A frank discussion on how liability plays out in the WUI.

Firewise Communities USA: New awards promoting local, regional and state projects that help reduce wildfire risk.

Cost-Share Workshop: Finding common ground on multi-jurisdictional & multi-agency fires.

vendor tradeshow

See the latest in wildland fire technology, equipment and services at our Vendor Tradeshow! Our high-traffic vendor showroom is the perfect location for contractors, consultants and businesses to showcase services and goods. Visit our registration website for more info.!

new & emerging

Idaho Firewise: Learn about Idaho's exciting new homeowner education program and how it can help YOU.

Ready-Set-Go! The dynamic new approach to teaching personal responsibility to those living in WUI areas while focusing on the reduction of WUI fire suppression costs through prevention & preparation.

Incorporating WUI in Building Codes: Hear from people who have successfully accomplished this daunting task!

The Future of Grant Funding in Idaho: How agencies (grantors) can better support counties (grantees).

This conference only comes to Idaho every two years...Don't Miss It!
